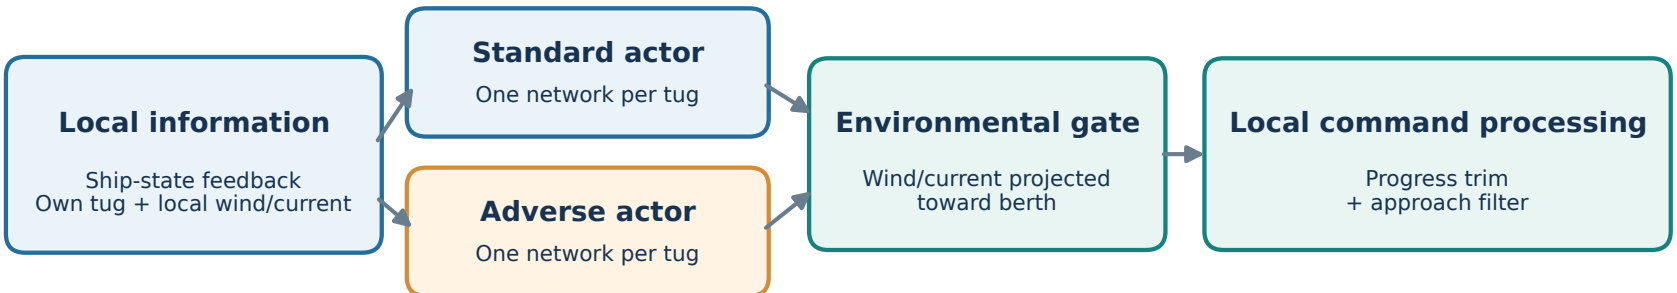
Same design runs independently on each of the four tugs



The coupled five-vessel plant receives the four commands; only the ship state is shared.

No peer-tug state or command exchange; no NMPC solver at inference